Adams Central Families:

This notification is to address a recent concern regarding student safety at Adams Central as well as to provide stakeholders with accurate information surrounding the concern.

This afternoon, it was reported that a student expressed to peers that "students should stay at home tomorrow" in a discussion that included past events on school violence.

Once school administration was notified of this statement, all students involved were immediately contacted to ensure no immediate threats exist.

After an extensive investigation by school administration, it has been determined this situation does NOT pose a threat to the health and safety of our students and staff. However, due to the school and community disruptions caused by the statement, school administration is pursuing appropriate disciplinary actions.

I want to assure you that school administrations take all school threats very seriously and will always prioritize the safety of our students, staff, and community.

Respectfully Submitted,

Joel D. Mahaffey
ACCS Superintendent of Schools
