Sports

- The varsity boys basketball team played hard last night but lost to a very talented Addison team 58-54. Tylan Waltz led all scorers with 41 points. Great effort Aggies.
- The JV boys beat Addison in overtime 63 to 56. Aidan Walsh led the Aggies with 25 points and Cole Scharer led the team in rebounds with 13. The first quarter score was Addison 22-2, great comeback for our JV team.
- The varsity girls dominated over Addison last night 46 – 17. Leading the charge was Emily Carbajal with 14 points and Kylie Serin with 11 points. Great win ladies!
- The JV Ladies lost 38-16 to a very aggressive Addison team. Leading all scorers was Zoe Rorick with 5 pts. Sarah Wheeler, Ramzey Poe, Denae Covey and Scout Robinson added points in the scoring column. The ladies continue to show improvement on both ends of the court and played better defensively than the score would indicate. Standouts on the defensive end were Faith Beardmore, Carley Allen and Zoe Rorick. Good effort and good luck Friday against Madison.
- Attention athletes that had their picture taken on Monday, if you have money to turn in to the photographer please bring it to the office. If you forgot your money; please come and see Sarah Hayton in the office to make payment arrangements.
