DRESS CODE

General Guidelines:

- The school prohibits pictures, emblems, writing, or any over-sized logos (other than the approved eStem logo) on clothing. Clothing with offensive or suggestive slogans or advertisements are not permitted.
- Torn or patched clothing of any kind are not permitted.
- All tops (shirts, blouses, undershirts) must have sleeves.
- Tongue rings and visible body piercings are not allowed.
- Tattoos and body art shall not be visible. Hairstyles and hair colors that are disruptive to the learning environment are not allowed.
- Baggy clothing and clothes that sag or fall below the waistline will not be allowed.
- Clothing with low-cut necklines and clothing that exposed the midriff shall not be worn.
- Hats or other headgear, sunglasses, and pins may not be worn inside the building.

Dress Code Violations:

The dress code will be strictly enforced, and the Director of the school has final authority on all matters relating to the dress code. All students violating the dress code will either be given a school uniform to change into or instructed to call a parent/guardian for a change of clothes. Students given a uniform will be allowed to change back into their original clothes at the end of the day. Students violating the dress code may be issued a detention. Repeated violations of the dress code may result in detention, Saturday School, or suspension.
