AND THAT'S A WRAP

By Kaylee Helling

The Lady Mustangs started their postseason matchups in Manhattan Christian. On October 28, the volleyball team played Gardiner for their first game of districts. It was a close game, but the girls came out with the win.

Their next game was tough, and they lost to Manhattan Christian in 3 matches. The Lady Mustangs made their way back through the bracket and came out of districts in 3rd place.

The next weekend the girls were back in Manhattan Christian for divisionals. They played Charlo first on Thursday, November 4 and unfortunately lost in 3 matches. The next day they played Seeley-Swan and took them down in 3. Later that day they beat Gardiner after taking it to 5 games. On Saturday, the girls played Charlo again; this time they crushed them.

Next, the Lady Mustangs played White Sulphur Springs, needing to win to make it to state. Unfortunately, the girls lost, ending their 2021 season. It was a disappointing loss, but the team showed heart and determination, earning a 3rd place finish overall.

This was the last season for seven seniors, including Shae Lovett. Shae said it was a great season overall, but she is "disappointed individually because of my injury." She adds that she "was proud to watch the team succeed in tournaments." She also said her favorite season was this year "because of the growth we showed as a team and what we accomplished in tournaments."

HOOP, THERE IT IS!

Girls by Katelyn Nutt

The Lady Mustangs basketball season kicked off on November 18. According to head coach Jordan Overstreet, the season is already off to a great start. "We're all one big family", has been one of his favorite phrases for years, and the girls team highly values that sentiment.

Nineteen girls went out for the sport this year, including five seniors; Shelby Klein, Shae Lovett, Cassidy Carruthers, Katelyn Nutt, and Cassie Hilton all hope for a fantastic senior season. Joining them on the team is a hardworking and talented group of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. Cassie, one of our seniors, looks forward to countless wins and a lot of team bonding within the Varsity and JV teams.

Boys by Justin Kloote

The boys basketball season has also begun. They have had a few practices so far, and their first game will be at Twin Bridges on Saturday, December 4.

Senior and co-captain (with fellow senior Brand Ostler) Jaxson Kloote shared that his goal for the season is to make it to state or divisionals. He said that their toughest opponent will be Manhattan Christian. According to Kloote, their team is very fast and athletic this year.

Sophomore Jeremy Mauch said that the team needs to work on staying out of foul trouble this season. Both players said that they expect to have a very good team this year.

Jared Smithson has been the boys head coach since 2015. His goals for the season are

Cassidy Carruthers, another member of the team, can't wait to show off her sick kicks and get her head in the game.

The first Varsity game will take place on December 4 in Twin Bridges. Both Varsity teams will be in attendance. Good luck Mustangs! Be sure to come out and show your support to our Varsity and JV teams at their first home game on December 14!

to get his players to play hard, smart, and together while having fun, and doing all these things will end with a win. He believes that the strengths of the team this year are height, basketball IQ, hustle, and heart. Weaknesses to address are body language and communication. Coach Smithson said that the last couple of years he has been building a culture, and this year's team is the result of the culture he has been building. He expects the Mustangs will have a very good season.

Extracurricular Update

By Ruby Blazer and Lilly Connor

FCCLA

FCCLA is off to a busy start. The district meeting was held on Monday, November 8 in Butte. There are 27 Ennis students participating in FCCLA this year.

This is Ms. Diehl's 10th year supervising FCCLA. She is excited to get back to the normal competition schedule and hopes to make it to nationals again this year. Diehl really enjoys FCCLA; she says it's fun to see the students succeed in a different way outside of school.

I asked Diehl if she would change anything, and she just said she would change the District Meeting. Junior Genesis Boyles, as the new president of FCCLA, plans to make the district meetings in the upcoming year a much more enjoyable and inclusive experience for everyone. Boyles hopes to pick a better venue and add in more speakers and some team-building activities that aren't so overwhelming, making it overall an experience to remember. She is very ready for all the new and exciting possibilities that come with being president of FCCLA.

BPA

Stephanie Hess has been the advisor of BPA for four years. She is looking forward to growing the Chapter and expanding the events students will compete in. For Hess, being the BPA advisor has been an interesting challenge, but with each new year, she is more and more comfortable in the role.

I asked Hess if she would change anything in BPA; she would get rid of the Regional competition and go straight to State. It has been challenging with the dates early in the year to get material together and motivate the students to do more lengthy projects.

Speech and Drama

We are welcoming two new speech and drama coaches this year. Kaylee Clemmons, a former student of Ennis High, is the head coach along with assistant coach Marci Whitehurst. Practice started in early October, and the first meet took place on November 20th in Helena.

Noni Dilschneider and Sage Canterbury are participating in Memorized Public Address; Ruby Blazer and Elizabeth Olson are a Humorous Duo; Levi Whitehurst is performing in Humorous Solo; Tara Jensen and Pyper Curry are doing Dramatic Solo; Josey Blazer is participating in Impromptu; and Bo Kelley is participating in Spontaneous Oral Interpretation.

Ms. Whitehurst loved both speech and theater growing up, and she was the theater coach in Whitehall for a few years before moving to Ennis. She is most excited to watch the students have fun, make progress, and enjoy the season. Setting goals for yourself and being part of a team are also things Ms. Whitehurst finds valuable in joining speech and drama. Both of the coaches say they are very proud of the team so far and can't wait for the rest of the season.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

BY KATELYN NUTT

Madison Allen

Madison plans to attend the University of Montana in Missoula, Dixie University in Utah, or Flathead Valley Community College in Kalispell. She hopes to pursue a double major in social work and business. Madison wants the freshmen to know that they should not park in the front row until they are at least upperclassmen. In ten years, Madison will be somewhere in California, married to a rich celebrity and being a social worker. Her favorite high school memory is the time she went sledding down the hill in cardboard boxes with Ellawynn, Taylor, and Cassie. Madison's favorite song is "80's Mercedes" by Maren Morris because it's a great song to jam to. Her spirit animal is Justin Kloote's cat because it is one COOL cat. Madison believes that our phones 150% spy on us. All day every day.

Joselyn Evans

Joselyn hopes to attend MSU Billings to pursue a degree in Construction Management. In ten years, she hopes to be living in central Texas in a fantastic Barndominium with her 6'3" Morgan Wallen look-alike cowboy and their two adorable children. Joselyn's advice to the freshman class is "Don't wait to start stuff. Just get it done." Her favorite high school memory is almost drowning in the lake at 1 a.m. Joselyn prides herself on her drawing ability and uncanny understanding of zebras. Joselyn despises Gretchen Wilson, who is an American country singer, with a burning passion because she made fun of THE Paris Hilton. When asked if she would rather have three eyes or three noses, she picked three eyes (because she loves her eyes.)

Caitlyn Daems

After high school, Caitlyn plans to attend either Boise state or Whitworth University to major in criminology and psychology. Her advice to the freshman class is to take all your hard classes early and save senior year for electives. Caitlyn's favorite high school memory is getting stuck in the dungeon and having to be rescued. Her pet peeve is when people act stupid for attention. If she could uninvent any invention, it would be the Adidas Yeezy boots because they are clunky and khaki and gross. A singer that Caitlyn absolutely hates is Cardi B because the sound of her voice is painful. In ten years, Caitlyn sees herself anywhere other than Montana or Idaho, preferably somewhere warm, and with loads of money.

Teachers' Pets

By John Ezelle

For this article, I decided to interview several teachers and see what types of animals they own.

The first teacher I interviewed was Ms. Diehl. She happens to own two dogs. Their names are Radar and Trapper, and they are both border collies. Radar is a nine year-old and is moderately chubby. Trapper is four years old and full of energy.

The second teacher I spoke with was Mr. Cavan. Cavan happens to own a yellow lab named Boone. Boone is four years old.

Cruising along, next we have Ms. Steffen. Steffen has a "magnificent" blue heeler named Hannah. Steffen's other dog is an aussie shepherd/blue heeler mix. His name is Owen, he's five, and described as "great".

Next, we have our wonderful office ladies. Mrs. Martello and Mrs. Lee both own two dogs each. Martello owns a black lab and a corgi. Her lab is named Bailey, and she is fourteen years old. Her corgi is named Molly, and she is twelve. Mrs. Lee has a yellow lab named Ruger and a border collie mix named Cooper.

Lastly, we have Mrs. Hess. Hess has two calico cats and two dogs. Her two dogs are named Gossard and Vedder. Gossard is a five year-old Bernese Mountain Dog and Vedder is a two year-old Corgi.

Letters To Santa

By Ruby Blazer

Thanks for the majority of my childhood.

Can I please get an apple watch because I am broke.

Dear Santa, please don't let me go into student debt next year! Help me find a way to pay for all of my college education. Yours truly, Addison

Hi Santa, I have been very good this year. My sister, however, has not. She should not get any presents this year. People who steal clothes from their sisters should not get any presents.

Plus, she has been kind of rude lately, she kind of has a 'tude. People with 'tudes should not get presents this year. Anyways, thanks Santa. - Josey

I want to tell Santa to get me a PS5 and FNAF security breach. - Sal

Eat less cookies. - Paxton

I would like to ask him some questions. Like how does he go to so many homes evry night and how does he always deliver presents without me catching him.

Dear Santa, please eat my cookies so my brother doesn't eat them all. Thank you, Gillian Gilbert

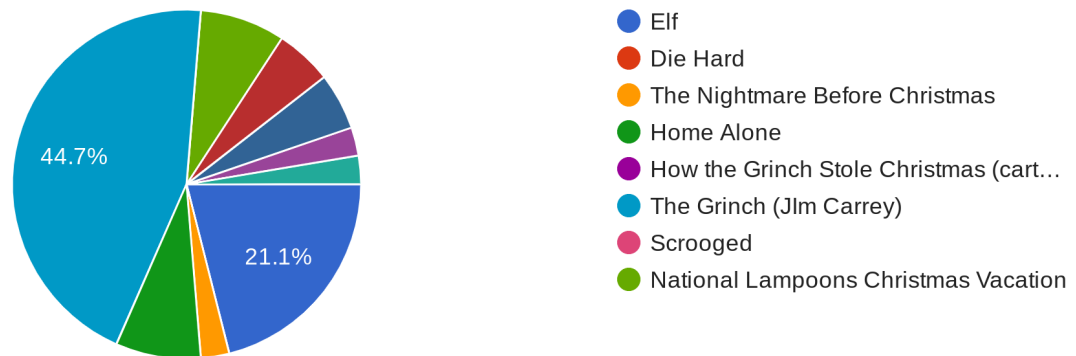

CHRISTMAS MOVIES!!

By Kaylee Helling and Justin Kloote

Justin and I sent out a poll to the high school students to see what their favorite Christmas movies are. The results ended up being that The Grinch (with Jim Carrey) received the highest number of votes. Our shared personal opinion is that the movie Elf is the best because we think Will Ferrell is superior to every actor to ever exist.

Holiday Wish List

By Olivia Sorensen

I asked some EHS students about what's on their holiday wish list for these 2021 holidays:

- Paxton Fortner: An Ipad, money, books, and world domination are on her wish list for these holidays.
- Addison Retherford: college stuff to help her prepare for this coming fall.
- Blane Clements: his number one thing is to finally catch Santa.
- Makenzi Boyko: blankets, sweatshirts, skin care, necklaces, and money.

If you haven't gotten your friends presents, get started. Time is running out!

Walking in a Winter Wonderland

I have some marvelous winter tunage for everyone to listen to

By Cassidy Carruthers

"All I Want for Christmas is You"- Mariah Carey

Mariah Carey is an American singer-songwriter, actress, and producer. She is known for her five-octave vocal range. She is referred to as the "Queen of Christmas". This song just radiates Christmas time love. Oh how merry.

"Mele Kalikimaka" - Bing Crosby

Bing Crosby was an American singer and actor. He was leader in record sales and radio ratings from 1930-1954. This irritating yet classic song haunts our radios. We love you Bing, but this is just not it.

"Happy X-mas (War is Over)" - John Lennon

John Lennon was an English singer-songwriter and peace activist. He was a co-founder of the Beatles. This song creates a beautiful image in its listeners' heads.

""Last Christmas"- Wham!

Wham! was an English pop duo formed in Bushey in 1981. They became one of the most successful pop groups in the 80's.

This song creates fragile ego syndrome in certain men. Be careful listening to this around your man ladies, he might start weeping.

"Little Saint Nick" - The Beach Boys

The Beach Boys are an American rock band that formed in Hawthorne, CA in 1961. These boys 'sleigh' the winter holidays with their Christmas album.

"It's Beginning to Look A Lot Like Christmas." - Michael Bublé

Michael Bublé is an extremely attractive Canadian singer, songwriter, and record producer. Turns out he doesn't just sing Christmas music, but he also writes his own songs. Ever heard of the song "Sway"? Yeah, he sings that.

"Mistletoe" - Justin Bieber

Just admit it. You totally had Bieber fever when you were in the fourth grade. This man had a chokehold on us little girls with his hit song "Baby".

#belieber4evr

"Santa Baby" - Eartha Kitt

This song made every little kid uncomfortable. Eartha Kitt was an American singer-songwriter who had a very unique set of pipes, but don't worry Santa, none of us will try to woo you when you come down our chimney.

10 Best Books to Read in December

By Jodie Bittick

1. The Twelve Dates Of Christmas by Jenny Bayliss: Kate, who is in her early thirties, is ready to call it quits with finding love before the holidays, but her friends sign her up for an app that promises to help you find love before the holidays. Now Kate has twenty three days until Christmas, and 12 dates with 12 different men. She can't be alone for Christmas anymore, right?
2. Ex-mas by Kate Brian: Seventeen-year-old Kate is ready to throw the best Christmas party when her parents leave, but her little brother, Cooper, hears that the North Pole is melting, and he and his best friend Tyler run away to try and save Santa. Now Kate has to get her brother safe at home before her parents come home.
3. My True Love Gave To Me by Stephanie Perkins: This book is a little different, but you'll be able to read 12 different stories. A lot of the reviews say that it puts them in the spirit for Christmas, but it became too similar.
4. The Holiday Swap by Maggie Knox: This book is about twin girls, and all they want for Christmas is to switch lives. Charlie, who is ready to be the judge in L.A. baking show, just lost her sense of taste and smell. Meanwhile, her twin Cass is trying to hold her life together back in their hometown. With only days until Christmas, Charlie asks Cass to do something they haven't done since they were kids.
5. Victorian Christmas Ghost Stories by Conan Doyle and Walter Scott: A lot like My True Love Gave To Me, this book has 13 chilling Christmas stories that are perfect to read during the holidays.
6. Skipping Christmas by John Grisham: Luther Krank doesn't enjoy celebrating the holiday traditions. He and his wife, Nora, take their daughter, Blair, and drop her off at the airport for a year-long trip to Peru. Then to get away from their town, Luther books a Caribbean cruise for himself and his wife. Nora was skeptical at first, but is starting to get used to no Christmas party or Christmas tree. Now everyone on their block is very upset, because if the Kranks don't decorate their home for Christmas, their block might not win the best decorated block. Everyone boycotts and tries to ruin their Christmas.
7. One Day In December by Josie Silver: Laurie doesn't believe in love at first sight unless it's in the movies, but when she meets eyes with a mysterious guy who is on the bus, she's certain he's the one. A year later, she's still looking for him, and they reunite at the Christmas party of her best friend, Sarah.
8. Blame It On The Mistletoe by Beth Garrod: Elle is a social media star with a dream life, but she wants to gain new followers and switch up her content, so she switches lives with Holly, who wants to be that person to switch lives with her favorite influencer, but what Elle doesn't know is that a very handsome guy lives right across the street, and Holly didn't know that Elle had a very cute twin brother.
9. Nick And Noel's Christmas Playlist by Codi Hall: Nick Winters and Noel Carter have been friends their whole lives. When Nick comes back from serving overseas, and finds out that his girlfriend was cheating on him, Noel is there for him, but they couldn't possibly cross the line of just being friends, could they?
10. Jingle Wars by R. Holmes & Veronica Eden: Finn Mayberry took over his grandparents-Inn while trying to keep it up and running when a young California girl named Freya Anderson came in, and decided to build a five star resort right next to his. Now he can't stop her from building, and stopping her from getting inside his head. Freya took one look at the beautiful mountains and fell in love. She wants to prove her father wrong that she can run the resort, but she would have never seen it coming when she saw her enemy was a very good looking man.

Christmas Trees

By Dakota MacKenzie

Christmas tree ideas and decorations:

Green Emerald trees

Apple and dark emerald green, also called holiday green, is stunning and you can pair it with colors such as gold, navy, platinum, and red.

Navy/ Nutcracker Christmas tree

A navy tree with colors of dark blue and light gold decorations pairs with so many different colors such as platinum and silver. Nutcracker decorations such as green, gold, red, and white make a good theme to put you in the spirit.

Metallic Christmas tree

Combinations of soft gold, matte silver, and beige are very calming choices. You can add more snow, tinsel, and/or glitter for a winter wonderland with Santa and reindeer.

Also, ribbons with floral patterns including versions of the magnolia flower and poinsettia are a unique combination.

Pastel Christmas Trees

Pastels, such as turquoise and pink are very cute also. Fake trees the colors of the rainbow are a neat decor.

These remind me of cupcakes, marshmallows, and gingerbread houses with pink frosting and gumdrops. You can decorate throughout your kitchen, kids' rooms, and living rooms, to make people have joy in their hearts when they see it.

Red and White Christmas tree with a twist

Snowberry decorations, peppermint lollipops, and glittery garland are classic combos. Your own gingerbread man ornaments and snowmen made of foam balls makes a bit of magic in your home.

Winter Woodland

Dark green trees with decorations of light brown and white flowers with dark brown berries and silver bells are a good look for a cabin or a chill home. Looks of creams, metallic, ivory, and gold ornaments are a good combo with it too.

HOLLY JOLLY HALLMARK

The Best Christmas Movies to Watch This Year

By Katelyn Nutt and Cassidy Carruthers

Hallmark movies claim a special place in many of our lives. We hold them near and dear to our hearts and can spend countless cold December days experiencing the warmth of these cozy, nostalgic movies. We've done a bit of research and have found the best Hallmark movies to watch this Christmas!

Let It Snow

Adapted from the book of the same name written by John Green, Lauren Myrical, and Maureen Johnson, this rom-com follows three very different storylines. Jubilee, the daughter of two Christmas fanatics, has had enough of Christmas. Tobin, a disgruntled senior in high school, is in love with his best friend. Addie, usually a carefree spirit, feels lost after breaking up with her boyfriend. The three strangers find themselves brought together by an unlikely winter storm. Their lives are changed forever. Available to watch on Netflix!

The Holiday Calendar

This festive feature focuses on a talented photographer stuck in a dead-end job who is in need of some serious Christmas cheer. She inherits an antique Advent calendar and as she begins opening it, she realizes the calendar seems to be predicting the future- and leading her to love. Watch it on Netflix!

Holidate

Starring Emma Roberts and Luke Bracey, this star-studded flick is sure to get you in the Christmas spirit. Two strangers who have become extremely fed up with being single on holidays agree to become each other's platonic plus-ones all year long. Without meaning to, the pair find themselves catching real feelings along the way. Available on -you guessed it- Netflix!

Coyote Creek Christmas

A disgustingly Hallmarky movie directed by David Strasser starring Janel Parrish and Ryan Paevey. While Throwing a Christmas Around the World party at her family owned inn, Paige encounters a rather charming father-son duo. Available on the Hallmark channel!

A Christmas Promise

Nicole learns to deal with grief after the death of her fiancé. Her grandfather and a carpenter she hires renovate the home that was once meant for her AND her fiancé. Available yet again on the Hallmark channel!

Pride, Prejudice, and Mistletoe

When Darcy returns to her hometown for the holidays, she reconnects with a former rival. They are assigned to plan a charity event together, but as she spends time with her family and Luke, she realizes what's most important. Yes, again on Hallmark.

HALLMARK STEREOTYPES

BY RUBY BLAZER

It's always this lady.

Good old Hallmark movies. I know you secretly watch them.. and LOVE them. I mean, what's not to love? Well, the answer to that question is actually a lot of things. So I have compiled a list of all the great stereotypical wonders of Christmas Hallmark movies.

1. Unrealistic Christmas-themed town name such as Evergreen, Sugar Cookie, or even Pine Cone
2. Obviously you need a single parent. Usually has a weird kid around the age of 9 that always listens
3. Hot, hunky man by the name of Matt or Chris with a peacoat and scarf even when it isn't cold out
4. Main character woman who is the same 3 actresses every movie (owns a family bakery or plans Christmas events all year round)
5. Main character woman's BFF / cousin that is way too involved and pushy about main character woman's love life with hot, hunky single dad
6. Hunky man doesn't like Christmas and thinks main character woman is too "carried away with Christmas", but she claims he just needs a little spirit or a song or something
7. Oh no! Main character woman has to win this art contest (hunky man just so happens to be an artist) or her family bakery will get sold by the bank
8. Unfortunate and totally unpredictable, a big snowstorm traps hunky man in his driveway (shovels don't exist), and he can't make it to the contest
9. Thank goodness she turns out fine at the contest thanks to willpower and the spirit of Christmas on her side
10. If you want to see some smooches, you will have to wait until the last 5 seconds of the movie, and boom! They live happily every after

Christmas Themed Horoscopes

By Katelyn Nutt and Cassidy Carruthers

Aries

Not to alarm you, but you are NOT on the Nice List this year. Better fix that before the big day!

Gemini

Looks like that perfect tree doesn't fit in the door. Guess it's time for some renovations! (Or maybe just a smaller tree)

Leo

We know you're used to being the center of attention, but the song "Away in a Manger" isn't about you is it?

Libra

You might be indecisive about what to get your brother or sister gift wise. Don't worry, I bet they only spent $10 on you. Get them a stocking stuffer. It's just a sibling, after all

Sagittarius

I hate to break it to you, but you're not getting Timothee Chalamet under your Christmas tree this winter. Don't worry, your handsome boy is still out there

Aquarius

Champ, we know you want to be in Rockefeller Center this Christmas but hey, it probably won't happen. How about you focus on sticking to the ice skating rink in VC.

Taurus

We overheard you say that you don't care about Christmas? Be expecting a visit from the Ghost of Christmas Past.

Cancer

Be expecting multitudes of coal in your stocking this Christmas, because you are most definitely on the naughty list this year.

Virgo

Maybe this Christmas Eve you should lay off the eggnog. No offense but your parents don't want you to tear down the tree again.

Scorpio

You've been listening to Christmas songs nonstop since October...way to go above and beyond! (Yes, you are better than everyone else)

Capricorn

Your Elf on the Shelf seems to be following you with its big, beady eyes and its slender crimson cheeks. Watch out.

Pisces

So funny story... um you should be careful of your behavior in December. That lump of coal is begging to be put into your stocking.
