Dear Parents and Guardians,

We are aware of a post circulating on social media concerning threats of school violence tomorrow, December 17th. The New Jersey Office of School Preparedness and Emergency Planning and the New Jersey Regional Operations and Intelligence Center have informed us that there is no viable intelligence to support this as a legitimate threat to any school in New Jersey. Nonetheless, we have communicated this information to our building Principals and our Coordinator of Security as we will remain vigilant.

We will maintain our contact with the Woodbridge Police Department and their officers who will continue to be present and visible in our schools.

Regards,

Joseph Massimino, Ed.D.
Superintendent of Schools
