Baldwin led a brief discussion regarding softball being a sanctioned sport. The South Dakota High School Activities Association would like to know if we intend to have a team. A survey will be sent out to parents/students to determine the interest.

Terri Mehlhaff, Elementary Principal, updated the board on the elementary. Mary Steffen received November Elementary Staff of the Month. Mehlhaff reminded the board that the Cheyenne Christmas Program will be December 16 at Kirley Hall and the Elementary Christmas Program will be December 13. James Cutshaw, Secondary Principal, gave a brief update on the MS/HS. Mr. Cutshaw congratulated the 26 students who were named students of the month for October and November. Amber Garrett and Tina England received Teachers of the Month for October and November. Cutshaw congratulated the Stanley County FFA chapter and the Stanley County Shooting Sports team. The Girls Cross Country, Boys Cross Country, Volleyball, Football, All-State Chorus and Football Cheerleaders all made SDHSAA Academic Achievement Team Awards. Cutshaw thanked everyone involved in the Veteran's Day program including the speaker, Jack Bickel, Tina England and the band and choir students for a wonderful concert and Bill Ellwanger for organizing the Dueling Duo Pianos. Superintendent Baldwin discussed the return to school edits and the policy review. Baldwin also updated the board on the alley project and the costs established as well as a legislative update.
