

How Do I login to My computer?

Username = usually the initials of your name (either two or Three initials). And then four numbers.

Password = set by user after first computer login.