

SANDITE SUCCESSES!

GREAT THINGS ARE HAPPENING IN SAND SPRINGS PUBLIC SCHOOLS

MAY 2018

Athletics

- ❖ Sandite baseball players Riley Rutledge, Brock Youngblood, Ty Steelman, Braiden Askew, and Conner Dennis were selected to play in the Tulsa Area Baseball Coaches Association All-Star Game. Coach James Garrison was chosen as the Head Coach for the team.

Angus Valley Elementary

- ❖ Angus had our very first K.I.S.S. (Kids Invite Someone Special) picnic. Students ate lunch with their families and friends on the front lawn and had a great time.

Central Ninth Grade Center (CNGC)

- ❖ CNGC had over 200 guests experience its Science Expo this year. There were 70 projects on display.
- ❖ CNGC had 65 new students inducted in the National Junior Honor Society this month.

Charles Page High School (CPHS)

- ❖ The Class of 2018 graduated on May 12. Of the 430 seniors receiving diplomas, 75 were honor graduates, 97 were National Honor Society members, 28 were Oklahoma Academic Scholars, three were National Merit Scholars (Dylan Hart, Jillian Landers, and Jack Thompson) and one earned Oklahoma Academic All State (Jack Thompson). Well done and good luck, Sandite seniors!
- ❖ Construction has begun on the Tulsa Technology Center Interior Design classroom at CPHS. The Interior Design program will begin in the fall. This will be the second on-campus Tulsa Tech program at CPHS with the Manufacturing Lab opening last year.

Clyde Boyd Middle School (CBMS)

- ❖ Thirteen CBMS choir students received superior ratings on their vocal solos at Tri-State Music festival. The CBMS choir received a superior rating at Heartland Music Festival and also received the sweepstakes trophy.
- ❖ Students in Mr. Caviness and Mr. Ehmke classes collected over $3,000 to support the CBMS Special Olympians' trip to Stillwater this year. The Olympians won numerous awards at the annual competition.

Early Childhood Education Center (ECEC)

- ❖ Pre-K classroom celebrated the end of the year with a special graduation ceremony. Clothing themes ranged from Star Wars to the State of Oklahoma.
- ❖ The annual Chalk Day was also a huge hit. Students used chalk to decorate the patios, sidewalks, and even the brick walls of the building.

Garfield STEAM Academy

- ❖ Garfield contributed over 1,000 books to students during the annual summer "Book Exchange"

Indian Education

- ❖ Five Indian Education students were recently inducted into the Oklahoma Indian Student Honor Society. Students must have a minimum of a 3.9 GPA, participate in a variety of service/leadership activities, and be involved in Native American cultural activities. The students are Jae Anthony-Wilson, Braden Askew, Thomas Naugle, Elizabeth Watts, and Santana Naugle.
- ❖ The following students were named 2018 Sand Springs Indian Students of the Year: Brendon Ketcher (Angus), Myka Cowan (Garfield), Laci Jo Kohlmeyer (Limestone), Ayreson Keigley-Reiss (NFAA), Brook Winchester (Pratt), Cale Askew (CBMS), Sarah Carver (CNGC), and Jae Anthony-Wilson (CPHS). (see below)

Limestone Technology Academy (LTA)

- ❖ Limestone welcomed Fab Lab Tulsa to our school. Our 4th graders learned about digital fabrication, electricity and circuits, and the design process as they created custom light displays. Special thanks to the Masonic Lodge #475 for their generous donation, which made this wonderful learning experience possible!

- ❖ Limestone third grade teacher Barbie Jackson was nominated by one of her students to be the statewide Eskimo Joe's Teacher of the Year winner! She won free Cheese Fries for a year, a $100 gift card, and a new teacher tee! Her student, Jack, also won $100!

Northwoods Fine Arts Academy (NFAA)

- ❖ In May, NFAA students exhibited their artwork at Mayfest, Herbal Affair and Art at the Park. Art teacher, Jennifer Barreto, was also featured on Explore Tulsa and interviewed by Channel 6 anchor LeAnne Taylor.

Page Alternative Academy

- ❖ Page Academy held its graduation and awards ceremony on May 22, with 27 seniors graduating. We appreciate the ladies of Sand Springs Aglow who donated three academic scholarships and hosted a reception following the ceremony.

Pratt Elementary

- ❖ Pratt 4th and 5th graders participated in the 2nd annual Elementary Track Meet. They ran, jumped, threw and tossed to accumulate points for their school.
- ❖ The last day of school at Pratt brought a dodge ball tournament where the teachers were swiftly and soundly defeated by their students.

Have a Great Summer!
