Presentations:

Goal #2 Progress Monitoring and Reporting – Early Childhood:

Mrs. Shannon Trimmell and Mrs. Shauna Henry presented to the Board of Education on the KESA committee covering Early Childhood. A meeting with area private preschool teachers was recently held in the District Office giving the group time to collaborate. The ASQ assessment administered to Kindergartners at enrollment is able to be administered earlier and resulted with 100% participation from parents. After their presentation, Mrs. Trimmell and Mrs. Henry fielded questions from the Board.

Goal #3 Character Development and Civic Engagement – Civic Engagement:

Mr. Scott Peterson presented to the Board of Education on the Civic Engagement committee and programs the committee is working on. He fielded questions from the board.

Goal #2 Progress Monitoring & Reporting – Elementary Data Update:

Mrs. Gorman gave the Board of Education a brief presentation on state and FastBridge Test Data assessment results. She also brought to their attention an article recently posted in the Salina Journal showing Kansas students scores fell during the pandemic. Mrs. Gorman presented the details in the article and then rebutted with how our SES students are actually performing.

Review of Board Goals:

Mr. Stumpf asked the Board to review the goals and bring any suggested edits to the next board meeting. He's pleased with how they currently read.

Superintendent Evaluation Notes:

Steve Bartholomew collected Superintendent Evaluation notes from other Board members. He will compile them for the Superintendent evaluation at the December meeting.

Mrs. Gorman left the meeting (8:05)
