STUDENT HANDBOOKS

The Superintendent or designee shall create student handbooks in conformance with the Department of Public Instruction's regulations. The Superintendent shall ensure that student handbooks do not conflict with district policy, state law, and/or federal law. The Board shall review student handbooks at the August board meeting prior to dissemination.

Student handbooks shall become part of board policy and will be disseminated to each student at the beginning of the school year and to each new student upon enrollment in the District.
