RE: Notification of Medical Emergency at Plattin Primary

The Plattin Primary building had a medical emergency this morning, January 11, 2022, that required the District to contact emergency personnel.

District Staff worked with the emergency personnel and the parents of the child to establish a plan for the health issues.

Please know the District continues to follow all emergency protocols and procedures involving these matters.

Please feel free to contact the district if you have any questions or concerns regarding these matters.
