

Eligibility will begin Monday, January 17, 2022 for Junior and Senior High School students. The following changes have been implemented to assist our students.

Students listed as ineligible may become eligible for their activity by participating in the eligibility extension process. Students will be required to attend and actively participate in 3 tutor sessions during the week for each class they are failing. Morning Sessions will be scheduled Monday through Friday at 7:35 a.m. to 7:57 a.m. Afternoon sessions will be scheduled from 3:35 p.m. to 3:57 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. Students failing more than two courses will need to attend two sessions for each class they are failing. Students that fail to attend or participate in the recommended sessions and are failing by the run time the following week will be ineligible for the following week. Students that attend and participate in the recommended sessions and are failing by the Friday run time will have their eligibility extended the following week. Students participating in the eligibility extension must pick up their tutor sheets from the office at the end of Steps (1:44 p.m.) Friday and return them to the office by Friday at 3:30 p.m. A master copy of tutor sessions will be compiled by the office.

ELIGIBILITY

Junior High or High School students who are failing one or more course(s) will be considered ineligible for any extra-curricular activities for a period of one week. Eligibility will begin the 3rd week of each semester and will run weekly until the semester has ended. Eligibility sheets will be generated using the goedustar grade book software each Friday at 12:00 p.m. beginning the second full week. Students, coaches, and sponsors will be notified if a student is listed as ineligible. The eligibility week begins on Monday and runs through the following Sunday. Students will not travel with the team or activity group to away activities while ineligible but will be able to practice and attend home events.
