From the Desk of Mr. Roby

Congratulations to the four speech students who advanced from the District Individual Speech Contest to the State Individual Speech Contest. Christian Goemaat received a 1 overall rating in Spontaneous Speaking and a 2 overall rating in Improv. Anna Lopez received a 2 overall rating in Radio News. Luke Carter received a 2 overall rating in Storytelling, and Hunter McCombs received a 1 overall rating for Radio News. Although none of our students advanced to the next level, all of them had a great season.

On March 13th, we had a huge turnout from businesses at our career fair. Several businesses were busy speaking with our students about job qualifications and expectations within their occupations. Thank you to all who took time off to meet with our students, and, thank you, Mrs. Sytsma for all of your hard work organizing this event.

English 3

In English 3 the students had a career unit where they learned how to fill out applications, create a resume, create a cover letter, and write a thank you letter. In addition, on February 26, 2019, the English 3 class went to Pella Corporation to do mock interviews. The staff at Pella Corporation conducted mock interviews for each student, and the kids toured the plant. We are very thankful for such a great company that is willing to take time out of their busy schedule to help students learn to be successful.

English 10

Mrs. Utterback

By the time this newsletter reaches you, we will have finished our unit in poetry. I just thought I would share a few of the poems that came out of the tenth grade English class. I was really impressed with my students' creativity, and a few of them were proud enough to allow me to share their work with you. Please enjoy!

Marks

There sits a boy
Alone, in the dark
On his arms
There seems to be many marks.

He was very sad
A few years ago
But those marks on
His arms
He does not like to show.

When he was younger
He got bullied a lot
But when he reached a certain age
The bullying no longer became an afterthought.

But now that he is older
His happiness explodes in sparks
But he knows in the back of his mind
He will never be able to get rid of those marks.
by Nathan Smith

Sun and Moon
She is the sun
And I am the moon
Her voice is so beautiful
Like the best sound of any tune
But since she is the sun
And I am the moon
She will never see me shine bright
And my sky will remain a dark blue
By Nathan Smith

Jack Frost
Cold as ice
Opposite of fire
White like rice
A snowy desire

Watery icicles
Slippery patches
Don't ride your bicycles
You'll end up with the deep scratches
By Mason Kreider

The Old Forest
Light shines through the trees
The mossy trees grow older
Branches lay in grass
Trees loom over the grassy land
Old trees fall and new ones grow.
By Gage Aldridge

On Tuesday, February 26th, Anna Lopez signed a letter of intent with the Simpson College Shooting Team.

March 6, 2019 Athletic Booster Meeting

Those in attendance: Trish McCarty, Brandy Dunkin, Andrea Moore, Deb Haselhuhn, Kim Roby, and Hunter McCombs

Treasurer's Report: $23,794.97

Hunter McCombs came to ask for a $125 donation for the trap shooting team. This will help pay for entry fees, meets, etc.

Hunter also asked for a donation for after prom.

Brandy motioned to give the trap shooting team $150. Kim seconded. The motion passed.

Kim motioned that we give after prom $50 plus 2 items of clothing. Deb seconded. The motion passed.

Brandy said that Zach would like to repair or rebuild the batting cage and he would get numbers to us next time.

Kristen McCombs asked via email about refillable cups. We are looking at having a refillable insulated cup for sale for $10 at football, baseball and softball games that could be filled with either tea or lemonade, or maybe hot cocoa. The refills would be inexpensive. You could buy these drinks for $1 or so without the refillable cup.

Other fundraising options were discussed in order to cover costs of paying groups to work concessions.

Trish said that she changed the dates for the scholarship and asked if it was okay to send to Julie. She put the application deadline as April 30. It was agreed upon to do this.

Kristen also said via email that a parent approached her about senior parents getting in free for senior night. Options were discussed on how to approach this. It was motioned by Kim that we continue with the gift for the senior and family. Brandy seconded. The motion passed.

Deb motioned to adjourn. Kim seconded. Meeting adjourned at 6:08p.m.
