

HANDLING A CONCERN

We value effective communication with our parents, guardians and community members. Please follow the steps below when you have a question or concern. It is our hope that most concerns can be resolved at the first step.

