

COMMERCE HIGH SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Dec. 2021

F
A M
I
L
Y
P
H
O
T
O

Robert Storey chose CHS for his student teaching semester from Pittsburg State University. He graduated in December with an education degree. He began college at NEO A&M. He was Mr. Bindel's student teacher for history for the 1st semester. Mr. Storey has lived in Miami for the past 6 years moving there from Illinois. He is married with 7 children. After working in production, security and being a stay at home dad, he decided he wanted to pursue his passion of teaching history. He said he had wo amazing teachers in elementary school and baseball coaches that never gave up on him. They helped him chose his ultimate career. He chose history because of the passion his dad had of history. Mr. Storey is eagerly looking orward to his first job. He shared that becoming a superintendent was his ultimate goal. Thank you Mr. Storey for being here and bringing your passion to CHS!

The Tiger Eye Award for the second quarter was awarded to the top student in each grade. Teachers voted on student character, citizenship and doing what is right when no one is looking. The winners for the second quarter were: Sr. Aiddenn Vanatta, Evan Thomas, Soph. Macy Hailey, Fresh. Chryssanna Harter

FCCLA sponsored their annual can food drive. A whole truck load of can & dry goods were collected and donated to the Commerce Fire Dept. for their Christmas Baskets.

Ms. Bolles classes made dough ornament and reindeer for their Christmas projects.

Basketball has started. CHS played in the Indianola tournament Dec 9-11. Both brought home 3rd place plaques.

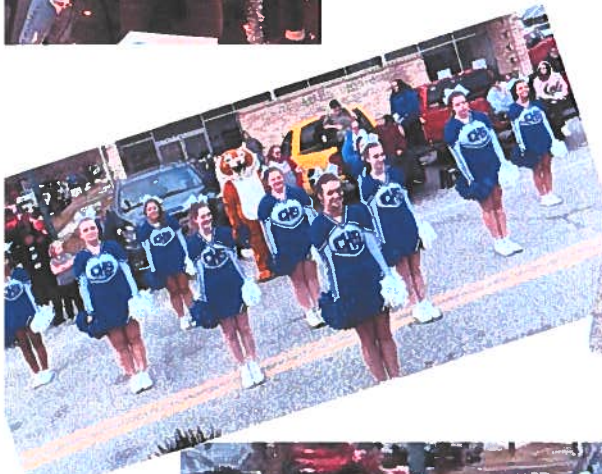

COMMERCE HIGH SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Dec. 2021

Commerce Christmas Parade Dec. 4, 2021

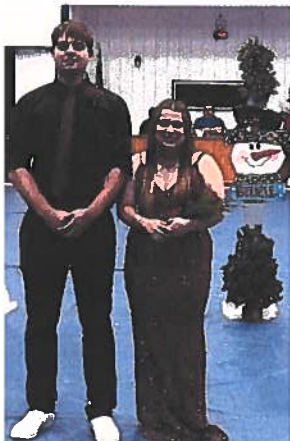

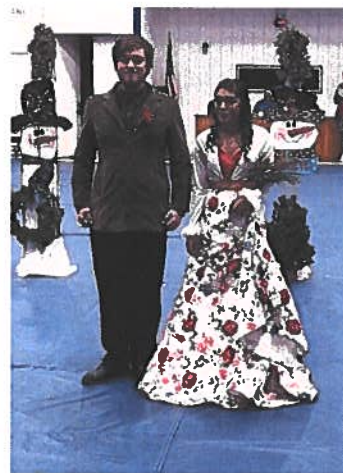

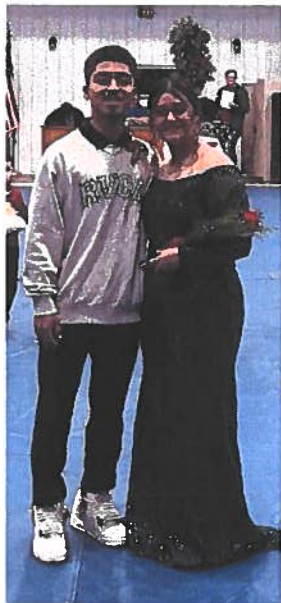

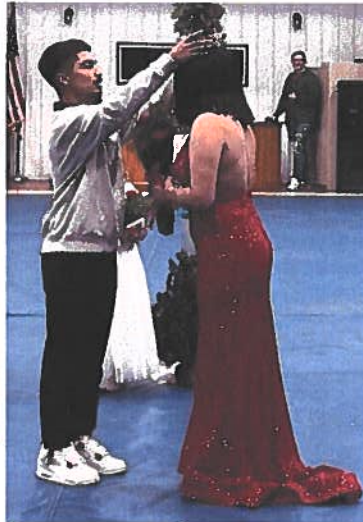

Sr's decorating the Christmas tree.

COMMERCE HIGH SCHOOL NEWSLETTER Dec. 2021

The Mr. & Miss Merry Christmas Assembly was held Dec 17th. After a school wide vote, Abigail Garza was crowned queen and Julian Herrera was crowned king. Their court consisted of: Eric Cunningham, Giselle Gutierrez, Michael Harley, Gaby Medina, King Julian, Queen Abigail, Aiddenn Vanatta, Lauren Shackelford, Marcus Howard and Baylee Weaver. Flower girl was Izabella Lacy and crown bearer was Coleton Barnes.

COMMERCE HIGH SCHOOL NEWSLETTER

Dec. 2021

The week of Dec 13-17 was "Ho Ho Ho for the Holidays" sponsored by NHS. Ugly sweater day, Clash of the Carolers (class colors), CHS Express, Family Flannel Foto Day & Festive Friday. Friday was the Mr. & Miss Merry Christmas assembly, with Mr. Dunn's Christmas Extravaganza & the choir performed. Mr. Earll had his students display their art work. Michael Harley was the first to answer Mr. Barker's "Twelve Days of Christmas" song quiz.

