Beading Class

Did you ever want to try making jewelry but did not know where to start? Here is your chance to learn basic beading skills and go home with some finished earrings, bracelets and necklaces to keep or to give as great gifts. The first class will focus on materials needed, techniques and lots of ideas so you know what beads will be needed to finish your projects. There will be catalogs you can order from at the first meeting so we can get a group discount on supplies. I will help you make the jewelry you want. You can say “I made it!” when you get compliments on your jewelry or the gifts you give.
