J. DISTRICT REPORTS:

Assistant Superintendent to Business and Operations, RJ Anderson:
The Midway House has been abated and ready for the fire department to use it as a learning tool. (Waiting for the State to lift restrictions). The Bond project is up and running. HVAC units are being replaced as well as roof repair. Buildings in repair process are: DHS band room 400, 100 and building 200. DIS classrooms 4-8 will be complete before school starts. Other roofing and HVAC projects that will be completed within 60 days of school starting will be buildings 500, CTE, and the DIG. (Durham Intermediate Gym.) Modern Building Construction Company will be doing the roofing/HVAC work. A Line is currently working toward starting the project of installing a sound booth for the Recording Arts project, installing electric charging infrastructure for the bus barn, replacing the high school boiler system, and entering the planning phases for the replacement of roof and HVAC units on high school building 300 and the main elementary building.

Superintendent, Joanne Parsley:
Superintendent Parsley graciously thanked the Durham Board of Trustees and the Administration present for the opportunity to work with them. She repeatedly mentioned the welcoming family atmosphere and the wonderful staff that supported the District.

Board of Trustees:
Trustee McLaughlin: Thanked Karla Rigsbee, DUTA negotiator, and the certificated members of the Durham Unified School District for their support and willingness to work together during this very difficult time. He also thanked Debbie Slightom, CSEA president, and the classified employees for their support of the budget negotiations. “We will miss you RJ, darn you for leaving! You and Joanne will really be missed.”

President DuBose: Thanked Karla Rigsbee and Debbie Slightom for helping to keep Durham in the black.

Trustee Smith: Gave thanks to everyone. The District went through a very difficult time and the ball wasn’t dropped. Thanks to Karla and Debbie. Thanks to Joanne and RJ. Thank you RJ for living up to being honest and telling the truth. Looking forward to working with our new Superintendent, John Bohannon.

Trustee Thorpe: Thanked all the Durham staff. The graduation was the best that it could have been. Thank you for all the work that was supplied to the graduating class. Thank you Joanne and RJ and best of luck. The warehouses look great! Thank you Eric Kolstad for that work and your crew.
