

Transitional Bilingual Instructional Program (TBIP) is funded through the State of Washington. Title III is a federally funded program. They both provide funds to local education agencies to ensure equal educational opportunities for students whose primary language is other than English. (OSPI)