Dear RSU 3 Community, Parents and Students,

Earlier today, RSU 3 became aware that a principal that is employed was arrested and charged with three counts of unlawful sexual touching of a minor. RSU 3 is performing an investigation into these allegations and will cooperate with law enforcement. The principal is on administrative leave pending the result of this investigation and has been informed that he is to have no contact with any RSU 3 students or enter RSU 3 school grounds.

RSU 3 takes these allegations extremely seriously and will take all actions necessary in order to ensure that its students are safe and protected.

There will be counselors available for students and staff.

If you or your child have any questions or concerns, please contact SRO Deputy Tozier 207-568-4675 or the Superintendent's Office at 207-948-6136.

Sincerely,

Mr. Charles Brown
