

NECAGT Presents . . .

"What I wish I had known"

A panel of past students, a GT Coordinator and parents will talk about what worked well in their gifted education experience in Northeast Colorado, what they wish they had asked for, and give their advice on advocating for your child now.

When: Friday, February 11, 2022

Where: NJC, Hays Student Center, Sterling

Time: 5:30 - 7:00 p.m.

Please RSVP to help us plan for food!

<http://www.tinyurl.com/RSVPFeb11>

Light refreshments will be provided

Northeast Colorado Association for Gifted and Talented is an affiliate of Colorado Association for Gifted and Talented and provides a networking and collaborative space for parents to learn, share and understand the unique needs of their gifted children.