

SUMMER READING CHALLENGE

HEY PARENTS!

You're probably thinking, "What is this 'Summer Reading Challenge' thing?" Let us tell you!

Each summer break, in an effort to help your children from slipping into the 'summer slide' and keep their minds active between school years, we put together a really fun reading challenge interspersed with live shows, story times and other really cool things to do.

All of it is free. (Yes, you read that correctly: zero dollars.)

"Okay, I'm liking this....so, what's the challenge?"
It's really simple: timed reading.

We are challenging your children to read for just ten (10) minutes at a time. It doesn't matter what they are reading, the back of the Lucky Charms Box, the newest CatStronauts book or that one picture book you've read twelve thousand times at bedtime, the point is to get them reading.

There are five levels to the challenge, each a total of reading for 200 minutes (or a little over three hours). Completing each level earns your child a prize ticket to enter the drawing of her/his choice and a mini prize. The more they read, the better the chance of winning a big prize!

Challenge ends on July 7th.

Sound good? Great! Time to get reading!

PLEASE NOTE!!

Unfortunately, we cannot buy unlimited supplies. Therefore, some of our activities and crafts can accommodate only so many participants. We apologize if you may miss out, but we can only do as much as our budget will allow.

If you are planning on bringing camps or groups over ten (10) children, you must speak with our Children's Manager, Amanda, about program size and limits. Not all activities can accommodate outside camps.
