Prosper School District Proclamation

Whereas, School Board Directors are elected officials voted on by citizens of their respective communities within state of Washington to govern their local school districts; and

Whereas, School Board Directors pledged to support the Constitution of the United States and the State of Washington and will faithfully perform the duties; and

Whereas, the purpose of local control is to allow elected officials to make decisions based upon the context of their community and the people their decisions effect; and

Whereas, it is the responsibility of School Board Directors to serve students, families, and community members within the boundaries of his or her school district; and

Whereas, COVID-19 vaccine requirements and/or mandates have been implemented by various federal and state officials without first actively seeking out the opinions of individuals their constituents;

Now, Therefore, We, Peggy Douglas, Andy Howe, Jeanie Aubrey, Elisa Riley, and Jason Rainer, as Directors of the Prosper School Board, proclaim that the Board will not endorse any mandate imposed upon parents to vaccinate their children from COVID-19 that is enacted unilaterally through executive action without approval by the United States Congress and/or the Washington State Legislature.

Signed this 12th day of January, A.D. Two Thousand and Twenty-two at Prosper, Washington.
