Semester Test Exemption Policy

Cody-Kilgore School District's Semester Testing Policy is a stand-alone policy and will not align with the Attendance Policy. Below are the requirements that must be met to be exempt from Semester Tests.

Students may be exempt from the Semester Test if the following criteria is met:

1. Students miss 4 or few class periods. 2 tardy's equal one absence.
Periods will not be counted against a student if they have a signed and dated doctor's note.
2. Have a B or higher in the class.
3. Semester Projects are not exempt.
4. If exempt a student can still take the test to improve their grade.
5. Students must take one semester test per semester. It must be a core class and not an elective.
6. Students exempt from semester tests do not have to attend school with parent permission.
