TITLE I SCHOOL-PARENT COMPACT 2022-2023

Connally Early Childhood Center, and the parents of the students participating in activities, services, and programs funded by Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA), agree that this compact outlines how the parents, the entire school staff, and the students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership that will help children achieve the State's high standards. This school-parent compact is in effect during school year 2022-2023.

Administrators Will:

- *Set high expectations which will engage all students in preparation for their future success.
- *Provide effective instructional leadership that will enhance student achievement.
- *Engage parents in the learning process to ensure student success and provide opportunities to be involved in their child's education.

Teachers Will:

- *Provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment that enables the participating children to meet the State's student academic achievement standards.
- *Provide information on the learning standards expected for students.
- *Discuss this compact, as it relates to the individual child's achievement, at the fall parent/teacher conference.
- *Provide open communication through the universal folder, conferences, phone calls, emails, and student reports.
- *Provide parents reasonable access to staff during the teacher's planning period and/or time specified and agreed upon between teacher/parent.
- *Provide parents opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child's class, and to observe classroom activities.

Parents Will:

- *Support the school and help communicate the importance of receiving a quality education to their children. A positive attitude is the single most important factor in student success.
- *Ensure my child attends school on a daily basis and is on time to school every day.
- *Check the universal folder sent home each day.
- *Read at home with my child a minimum of 15 minutes per day.

- *Communicate directly and promptly with my child's teacher about any concerns about my child.
- *Participate, as appropriate, in decisions relating to my children's education.
- *Stay informed about my child's education and communicate with the school by promptly reading all notices from the school, or the school district, and responding, as appropriate.
- *Attend parent orientation, conferences, and other school events.
- *Volunteer in my child's classroom and/or school when possible.

Students Will:

- *Accept the challenges to work and behave at high levels in all areas of the school.
- *Always do my best and be positive.
- *Read at least 15 minutes every day outside of school time.
- *Give to my parents, or the adult who is responsible for my welfare, all notices and information received by me from my school every day.
- *Show respect for self and others.
- *Follow the school wide rules and student code of conduct.
