Kiersten Allen spoke to all the CHS male students for the MAN UP Assembly Feb 10th. She shared her life experiences to the young men so they can get a different perspective from someone who got hit by a drunk driver. She stressed how important it is to make good choices All of the young men were given a MAN UP hoodies after the assembly.

Jim Haynes & Tim Osborn representatives from Commerce First Baptist Church brought goodie bags and coffee to the CHS Teachers donated by the KALEO Foundation.

Michael Sweeten and Amanda Powers representing the Commerce Fire Dept, brought Ambulances filled with medical supplies February 22. Everything is truly appreciated.

Even though the winter weather had CPS only attending 12 full days and 2 virtual days in February, several clubs did get to have meetings. Ms. Bolles FCCLA & the Prom Committee are a couple of the clubs that are very busy this time of year.
