Lomira High School

Welcome! 2014

Welcome to the 2014 edition of the Lomira High School yearbook "More than Roar." It certainly has been a year filled with more than its share of Lion pride and Lion changes so we've decided to capture the year in idioms--expressions that mean more than just the actual words. "A picture paints a 1000 words" and this yearbook will try to give you both words and pictures to show you the year that was.

One of the "proudest feathers in our cap" this year was the addition of a PBIS program to support our positive students with a little "Scratch" (you know, those reward tickets that can earn you prizes). With Lion Pride signs now pervasive in the school, we all can't help but remember to do things the "Lion Way" each and every day.

Adding to our "Lion Pride" and "setting the gold standard" for success was the induction of our very own Coach Dave Meyer into the Wisconsin Wrestling Coaches Hall of fame! You make us "roaring proud" Mr. Meyer!

Also "making the highlight reel" for Lion Pride events were numerous fundraisers, special activities and prayers as we "carried the torch" for Renae Metke in her battle against cancer, as well as the additions to the staff of Nellie Broeske (Reading Specialist), Dave Gerszewski (Counselor) and Dennis Sullivan (Study Center) as they help us all carry out Mr. Danner's oft quoted mantra to "Live the Dream."

Taking our Lion Pride "to a whole new level," LHS administration worked fervently to make our school a better place, not only on the inside, but the outside as well with a $24 million building project that will have gone to referendum in February 2014. We are hoping that we will be writing about "a whole new world" when it comes to the future of the Lomira School District and the facilities we can offer generations of lions yet to roar!

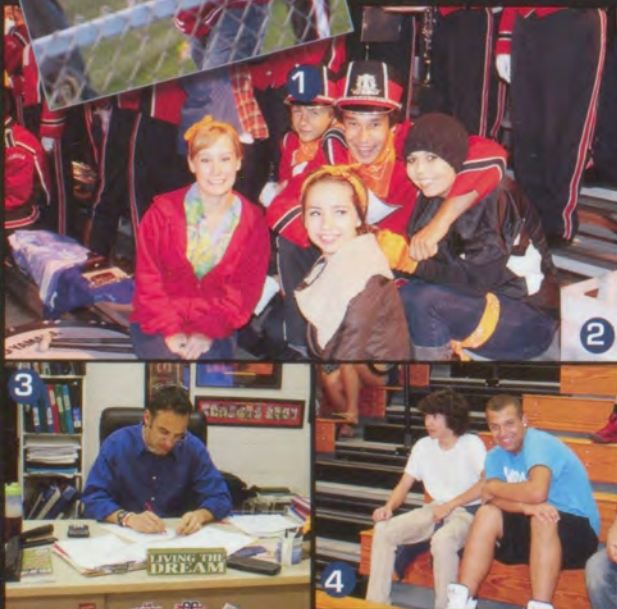

1. Justin Lammers giving a thumbs up to school! I love this place!

2. Nik Frank, Anson Bautista, Renae Metke, Bridget Zylka & Paige Jaeger preparing for the Homecoming show!

3. Just another day in paradise: Mr. Danner "Living The Dream!"

4. Brett Schlidt & Will Sammer enjoying the pep assembly!

The Lion Pride Way

PBIS

2013-14: The school year that brought the PBIS program to LHS to offer students rewards for their good behavior rather than punishment for bad behavior. Being good citizens means students can earn "scratch" that can be redeemed for candy or prizes or put into a drawing for awesome prizes such as gas cards, a front-row parking spot, special dinners, fan of the game service and a number of other possibilities! In addition to prizes, Lomira students enjoyed home-made instructional video lessons by LHS staff on "Lion Pride" behaviors during the year and then went on to help make our school a positive, pleasant and purposeful place to get an education in the Lion Pride Way!

PBIS Fun

What do you get when you add 350 students, 25 staff members, 1 cowbell and a PBIS program? A whole gym full of Lion Pride Fun!

Meet the Robinsons

Racking up some serious points in the dating game, the Robinsons show off their (awww isn't that cute) matching answers! And imagine that...it's "out behind the barn!"

Who's in Charge?

There's a whole lot of people in charge of this assembly: Mr. Danner, Deb Janke, John Muenster and Alex Bloch all conference about what comes next in the assembly.

Play the Dating Game

Sara Flatt plays hostess to the Dating Game and waits while Kati Kindschuh, Cayden Wiese and Kiersten Zangl work on writing out their answers.

More Cowbell Harley!

Harley Walter goes wild with the Cowbell at the assembly while Brad Fink stays cool waiting for his turn to make his own cowbell solo.

MEET OUR AFS STUDENT AUF

Full Name: Kherkchai Choo-aksorn

Origin: Phutthalung, Thailand

How Did You Feel When You Found Out You Were Coming to America? Surprised, because I wanted to come to America and have never been here before.

Favorite Part of Living in America? Coming to high school and meeting new friends.

What is Similar Between Your Home and the US? In Thailand it is so warm, but it is cold here. We can ride motorcycles at age 15 and cars at age 18 in Thailand.

How is School Different Here? In Thailand, we have uniforms and have different classes every day. We go to school before 8am because we need to pray every morning and meet with teachers. We start at 8:30 and end at 4pm.

McKenna Garriety & Ellie Ries take roll call for yearbook names?

No, Really, they are practicing Forensics!

Farewell

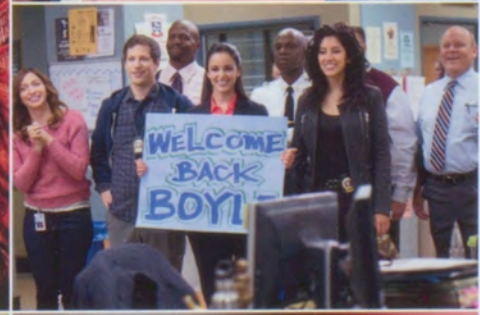

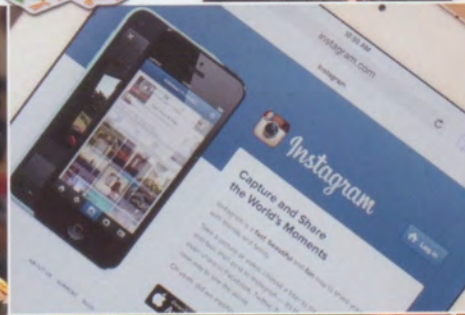

*To the Class of 2014 and to our building as we know it with the 24 million dollar remodel beginning this summer!
Definitely More (and MORE) than Roar!*

Publication Information: The 2013-14 Lomira High School Arimol Volume 72 "More than Roar" was produced by a small group of dedicated individuals at Lomira High School, 1030 Fourth St, Lomira, WI 53048 (www.lomira.k12.wi.us). A total of 240 copies were printed by Jostens Publishing Company of Topeka, KS. Layouts and designs were done by advisor and staff with the help of Josten's Yeartech Online program. Photographs were taken by Arimol Advisor & Staff, Gueller's Photography of Mt. Calvary and Katie Leb of the Dodge County Pionier, as well as numerous coaches, parents, teachers and other students (Facebook too!). Fonts used include Times, Dancing Comfort, Helvetica and a variety of scripts. Yearbook production cost passed on to the students was an average of $55 per book thanks to our many fine ad sponsors who kept this price low (and unchanged for the last number of years!)
