

Heard County Schools
Attendance Zone Transfer Information for the 2023-2024 School Year

- Parent notification of the availability of attendance zone transfers will be posted on the Heard County School System website.
- Applications will be available electronically using the link from the system website (<https://forms.gle/28fxRgm7ZxFmRSZd9>). Applications will be accepted through June 16, 2023.
- Applications will be reviewed by the Open Enrollment Committee and notifications will be made by June 30, 2023.
- For students whose resident attendance zone changes within the school year, application can be made at the time of the move.
- For students entering the Heard County School System for the first time, application for an attendance zone transfer can be made at the time of enrollment.
- Acceptance as an attendance zone transfer student is dependent on available classroom space at each school. Approval may be terminated, and the student asked to withdraw, at the end of each semester should class size become an issue.
