

Denial of Permission to Release Student Contact Information to Armed Forces Recruiters

Dear Parent/Eligible Student,

Federal laws require school districts to provide a student's name, address, and phone number (if listed) to recruiting representatives of the U.S. Armed Forces and its service academies, the Kentucky Air National Guard, and the Kentucky Army National Guard, and institutions of higher education if requested.

FOR STUDENTS WHO HAVE REACHED AGE 18:

I wish to request that my contact information (name, address, and phone number) not be released to Armed Forces recruiters and institutions of higher education. I understand that this withholding of information will be in effect for my entire high school career, and that I can revoke this option at any time by notifying my school and /or school district in writing of my decision. This is not to be taken as a request to withhold my information from school publications or from scholarship agencies, prospective employers or any other entity.
