GENERAL:

PHS Multicultural Club presents Hispanic/Latin Heritage Month:

September 17, 1968, President Lyndon B. Johnson signed Proclamation 3869, officially creating Hispanic Heritage Week. The goal was to honor the positive and widespread impact that people of Hispanic descent have on the United States. Two decades later, lawmakers expanded it to a month-long celebration...stretching from September 15 to October 15.

DID YOU KNOW?

- The Hispanic population of the United States as of July 1, 2021, makes people of Hispanic origin the nation's largest racial or ethnic minority.
- Spanish is the second most spoken language in the United States.
- If you're a coffee drinker then there's a pretty good chance that your coffee came from Brazil. Brazil is one of the world's top exporters of coffee, sugar, and orange juice.
- Colombia mines and produces almost 90% of emeralds in the global market.
- South America has pink dolphins! The Amazon River is home to pink dolphins. They are also called "Pink River Dolphins or Boto" and they live in freshwater as opposed to saltwater.
- A Mexican inventor created the first birth control.
- Color TV was invented in Mexico.
- Mexico City is the second city in the world with the largest number of museums.
- The first printing press was established and used in Mexico City.

7 INFLUENTIAL HISPANIC AMERICANS:

1. Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez: The youngest woman ever elected to Congress, at the age of 29.
2. Lin-Manuel Miranda: A composer, actor, writer, and activist. His most famous accomplishment is writing the hit, Broadway Musical Hamilton.
3. Ellen Ochoa: First Hispanic American woman to go to space when she joined the 9-day mission aboard the Discovery shuttle in 1993.
4. Cesar Chavez: A labor leader and civil rights activist. He co-founded the National Farm Workers Association and led peaceful protests and marches to advocate for Latin civil rights.
5. Dolores Huerta: A civil rights activist. She also co-founded the National Farm Workers Association and led successful workers' strikes and later with her work with women's rights.
6. Sylvia Rivera: An icon for the gay and transgender rights movements. She formed Street Transvestite Action Revolutionaries which supported LGBTQIA+youth in Manhattan. After her death in 2002, The Sylvia Rivera Law Project was established to provide legal representation to those in the trans, non-binary, and non-gender conforming communities.
7. Roberto Clemente: Became the first Latin American and Caribbean to win the World Series as a starting baseball player. Despite this success, he faced racial discrimination in the US and this led him to advocate for Latin and Black players' rights in sports.
