Child Custody

The board of directors presumes that the person who enrolls a student in school is the residential parent or guardian of the student. The residential parent or guardian is responsible for decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of student. Parents or legal guardians have rights to receive information contained in the school records concerning their child and to forbid or permit the disclosure of such information to others, subject to the authority granted to the residential parent or guardian.

The board, unless informed otherwise, assumes that there are no restrictions regarding the nonresidential parents or guardians right to be kept informed of the student's school progress and activities. If restrictions are made relative to the above rights, the residential parent or guardian will be requested to submit a certified copy of the court order that curtails these right(s). If these rights are questioned by the nonresidential parent or guardian, the issue will be referred to law enforcement authorities for resolution.

Unless there are court-imposed restrictions, the nonresidential parent or guardian, upon request, will be given grade reports, notices of school activities, reports of disciplinary actions, or notices of teacher or principal conferences or summaries.

If there is a court order on file with the district that restricts and/or prohibits any parent or guardian or other person from contact with a student at school or picking up a student from school, then the district will not permit the student to visit with or be released to that parent or guardian, or other person.
