

Eleanor Wiebe Scholarship

Background

Eleanor Wiebe was born on the family farm northeast of Hurdsfield, ND, where she graduated from high school in 1951. She received her degree in education from Valley City State College. She became a fourth and fifth grade teacher in Bloomington, MN, where she taught for 35 years, before retiring in 1990. She then moved back to Hurdsfield, and eventually to Fessenden. She enjoyed reading and tending to her flower gardens.

Eligibility Requirements

Must be a graduate from Harvey or Fessenden-Bowdon High School. Students must have completed at least one year of college. Proof of attendance will be required.

Preferences

Students who enroll in agricultural programs.

Special emphasis to those students who enroll in vocational or trade schools for agricultural purposes. Primary consideration shall be based on need and not necessarily scholastic achievements.

May be awarded in consecutive years, but only upon re-application and qualification each year.
