

Student Services Program

Pocahontas Public Schools comply with Act 908 (1991) by coordinating student services within the district into a Student Services Program (SSP). This includes such services as guidance/counseling, psychological services, conflict resolution, health services, school suicide/crisis plans, at-risk/student dropout planning, and referral and alternative services. The appropriate staff members follow specific plans and procedures in their professional area.