MEDIA RELEASE FORM

Throughout the year a student's name, photograph, video, or writing may be used in Alliance City Schools publications or web site. In addition, from time to time, a student's name, photograph, video, or writing may be released for use by area newspapers, radio and television stations.

Alliance City School District takes special care to protect the safety and identity of all our students. For example, only a student's first name and last initial are displayed on the district's web site.

I agree to the release of my child's name, photograph, video, or writing to local news publications and in school publications.

I do not agree to the release of my child's name, photograph, video, or writing to local news publications and in school publications.
