

Senior College Planning Night – College Info:

	Ball State University, founded in Muncie, Indiana in 1918, has been named one of the best universities in the Midwest by the Princeton Review for over a decade. With about 22,000 students representing all 50 states and 68 countries, a 93% career placement rate, and nationally ranked and recognized academic programs, Ball State is the one to watch. While they are proud of their roots as a Teachers College, they have grown far beyond them. Ball State is a world-class university, with over 190 different majors and 130 minors. They also believe that place matters, and that is why their beautiful campus is such a great fit for so many. The size, the culture, the amenities, and the people really set Ball State apart, not to mention over 400 student organizations and Division 1 Athletics. Theirs is a simple promise: to challenge others to excel. Contact: Abby Haworth – anhaworth@bsu.edu (765) 285-4779
	With an undergraduate population of about 4300, Butler University is able to offer a unique balance between big and small school experiences. Butler students can choose from over 65 majors across six colleges, and combine their studies with internships, study abroad experiences, and more. With an average class size of 21 and 0 teaching assistants, Butler students are able to learn and grow in a personalized environment. Students receive hands-on experience in their field, often as early as the first semester on campus. Excelling in internship placements and undergraduate research, students are able to build their confidence and their resume as they pursue their passion. Outside of the classroom, Butler students are engaged on campus and in the community. Students can choose from over 160 clubs and organizations, 30 club and intramural sports teams, Greek life, volunteer opportunities, and more. Butler also offers 18 NCAA Division 1 athletic teams for students to enjoy, whether they are on the field or in the stands. Students are also able to enjoy a prime location in Indianapolis, situated just north of downtown in a quiet neighborhood. Contact: Kylie Strike – kstrike@butler.edu (317) 940-8100
	Franklin will challenge you in rigorous academic programs taught by high caliber professors who have a passion for teaching. With 50+ majors from 25 academic disciplines to choose from, you can customize an educational plan perfect for you. Franklin’s learning environment is engaging and personalized to align with your interests and goals. There are no teaching assistants at Franklin; with our 11:1 student-to-faculty ratio, you can be certain that your professors will know more about you than just your name and will push you to reach your full potential. Franklin students consistently score in the top percentiles on national field tests in business, athletic training and psychology. Ninety-five percent of students in the class of 2015 were working full time or attending graduate school within six months of their graduation. Contact: Sonnie Terrell – sterrell@franklincollege.edu (317) 738-8065
	Indiana University Bloomington is a large and prestigious public institution, with an undergraduate population of just over 33,000 students. The flagship of IU’s eight campuses, IU Bloomington contributes in research and the arts through innovation, creativity, and academic freedom. Students from across the country and around the world choose to pursue their education at IU, with a diverse student body from all 50 states and more than 150 countries. An IU education offers top academic programs with flexibility that allows students to discover their passions and pursue what they love. With 12 schools and more than 200 majors a student can mix and match, add minors, and even create their own major, students can personalize their education. IU students have access to preparation for a global career through one of the top 10 study abroad programs in the nation. And, with academic and career preparation services, career and internship fairs, and one of the largest living alumni networks in the world, students have and on- and off- campus resources to ensure success. IU students are also engaged and fulfilled outside of our classrooms, with more than 750 student clubs and organizations, world-class arts and culture, Big 10 varsity athletics, and countless campus and community service opportunities. All of these amazing opportunities are available on one of the most beautiful college campuses in the country, located in a quintessential college town. Contact: Stephanie Stephenson – sacrowe@indiana.edu (812) 856-5802

IUPUI is Indiana's premier urban research institution. With more than 350 academic programs from Indiana University and Purdue University schools set in the heart of downtown Indianapolis, students at IUPUI have the resources and opportunity to make their dreams a reality. Home to 20,000 undergraduate students we are the 3rd largest institution in the state of Indiana. Our student to faculty ratio is 17:1 and we have over 500 student organization, division 1 athletics and great on-campus living opportunities. IUPUI focuses on the RISE Initiative which allows students to apply what they learn in the classroom in real-world settings across four types of settings – research opportunities, international travel and learning, service learning experience and experiential learning. To apply visit admissions.iupui.edu. Our application fee is $65 (waivers accepted), we required an essay, an official copy of your HS transcript and test scores (ACT or SAT) sent directly from the testing agency. We are on rolling admission and our priority deadline for top scholarship consideration is November 15th but we accept applications for the fall term until May 1st. If you are interested in learning more about the programs and opportunities at IUPUI or if you'd like to schedule a visit to see for yourself please contact:

Melissa Myroup – mafraser@iupui.edu 317-278-5232 or visit admissions.iupui.edu

Ivy Tech is Indiana's community college, offering more than 150 programs in the following schools (and offering more than 100 transfer programs with in-state and out-of-state schools): School of Business; Logistics & Supply Chain; School of Public Affairs & Social Services; School of Information Technology; School of Arts, Sciences & Education; School of Health Sciences; School of Nursing; School of Advanced Manufacturing, Engineering & Applied Science

We offer hands-on experience with some of the state's most advanced technologies and training facilities, plus the convenience of more than 1,000 online classes, and the attention that comes with a small average class size of 22. Ivy Tech is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission with more than 40 locations and teach classes in more than 75 communities. We have grown to become the largest public postsecondary institution in Indiana—and the largest singly-accredited statewide community college system in the entire country.

Contact: Chris Ponsler – cponsler2@ivytech.edu (317) 917-5924

Purdue University—West Lafayette is a public institution that was founded in 1869. It has a total undergraduate enrollment of 30,043, its setting is city, and the campus size is 2,468 acres. It utilizes a semester-based academic calendar. Purdue University—West Lafayette's ranking in the 2018 edition of Best Colleges is National Universities, 56. Purdue is made up of 13 schools and colleges, many of which serve both undergraduate and graduate students. Professional and graduate programs include the well-ranked College of Engineering, Krannert School of Management, College of Education and College of Pharmacy.

Contact: Matt Chupp – mchupp@purdue.edu (765) 496-6623

The University of Alabama is located in Tuscaloosa, AL (8 hour drive from Plainfield) where the average yearly high temperature is 76.3 degrees. The University of Alabama is dedicated to excellence in teaching, research and service. We provide a creative, nurturing campus environment where our students can become the best individuals possible. Total enrollment at The University of Alabama is 38,563 and UA offers over 200 fields of study and more than 600 student organizations, providing students with top-notch academics, a vibrant campus life, and a University rich in tradition. More than 40 percent of UA's 7,407-member freshman class (2017) scored 30 or higher on the ACT. 57% of the University's students come from out of state. The University of Alabama offers automatic scholarships starting at a 1280 SAT/27 ACT and a 3.5 CUM weighted GPA.

Contact: Jennifer Potts – Jennifer.potts@ua.edu (317) 452-6349

Your whole life awaits, and the University of Indianapolis is an excellent place to launch it forward. With more than 100 academic programs, small class sizes, and a close connection to the Indianapolis community, U Indy offers the perfect setting for you to meet the future you. Here, you'll be part of a diverse community of students working closely with caring faculty who want to help you answer the big questions and discover your passions.

Contact: Katie Ashcraft – ashcraft@uindy.edu (317) 788-3216

WABASH COLLEGE

Wabash College asks you the most important question you will ever be asked: What kind of man do you want to be? We then make an institutional commitment to help every Wabash student develop his own answer to this life-changing question by blending an intimate liberal arts education with our culture that emphasizes personal responsibility, resilience, and reflection. A liberal arts education is the best preparation for any career. Wabash offers majors and minors in 36 programs, as well as Liberal Arts Plus.

Contact: Caitlin Ebbinghaus – ebbinghc@wabash.edu (765) 361-6019

Anderson University is a small, private Christian university located in Anderson, IN! It is only an hour and ten minutes north east of Plainfield. AU has over 50 undergraduate majors with new majors in National Security, Cyber Security, Computer Engineering, and Sports Marketing. AU's biggest majors are Nursing, Business, and Education and has been ranked as the #1 Nursing school in Indiana. AU prepares students for a life of faith and service in the church and society! AU is unique as a Christian university and does not require a statement of faith. Students from all faith backgrounds are welcome to the AU community! AU is known for its amazing international travel opportunities through their Tri-S program (Share, Study, Serve). AU has a 12 to 1 ratio of students to professors and an average class size of 18 students! We hope to see you and your family on a campus visit this fall!

Contact: Hannah Marsh – hmarsh@anderson.edu (765) 641-4093