THE BRONCO Way

Be RESPONSIBLE

Use GOOD JUDGMENT

Have CHARACTER

SHOW RESPECT

DRESS Code Policy

Neckline of shirts must be no lower than the crease of your armpit.

Shirts must have some form of strap and therefore, strapless tops are not allowed.

Shirts should be at least long enough to reach the belly button when worn in a neutral stance/position.

Shorts/skirts should be sufficient in length to cover a student's backside at all times, never exposing a student's undergarments.

Jeans or pants should not be excessively ripped, and no rips higher than the start of a pants inseam.

Clothing, jewelry, and personal items like backpacks, shall be free of writing, graphics, or any other symbol that are deemed vulgar, profane, or sexually suggestive. Any item that advocate(s) racial, ethnic, LGBTQ+, or religious prejudice or the use of drugs, tobacco, or alcohol are not allowed.

Baseball caps, visors, and headbands free from writing and/or images that may disrupt the school environment may be allowed in classrooms at the teacher's discretion. = Individual teachers can decide if they allow hats or sweatshirt hoods to be worn inside their classroom.

AVID

Advancement Via Individual Determination

- ❑ What is AVID? What AVID is not?
- ❑ Who is an AVID student?
- ❑ Once selected, what are the student requirements?
- ❑ What does the AVID elective class look like?

Application: AVID Application

Talking Points:

- AVID is an elective class for supporting goals for higher education
- AVID is NOT a study hall
- An AVID student has solid grades (minimum of a C in content area classes) and is motivated for school
- In the AVID elective class, there is an AVID curriculum, tutorials, & academic support/grade graphs
- AVID is a college support class for 2 and 4-year programs after high school
- Life-long friendships/AVID family
