Kindergarten

In Kindergarten, we have been reviewing subitizing to get ready for testing. The kids like to match the different ways to make numbers and have even begun to start sounding out the number words!

-Mrs. Ruwe

1st Grade

I am so proud of how hard my first graders have worked this year to improve their reading fluency and stamina! They are becoming more confident in their reading skills and would love to show off to anyone who asks!

- Ms. Kahle

2nd Grade

Ms. Mohnson's 2nd grade has been counting down to summer break. Day 17 was "Special Teacher Read Aloud Time". Mrs. Tremayne read "A Bad Case of Tattle Tongue". Everyday we will pop a balloon and enjoy a special activity. - Ms. Mohnson

3rd Grade

The third graders have been learning all about space. This week the classes were able to combine art with science for a fun STEM activity. Rocket ships were created and launched with the help of a simple drinking straw. The pictures capture our countdown leading up to the moment we all launched the rockets outside of the classroom.

-Mrs. Finzen

4th Grade

Ms. Almaraz's class has been working hard every day in reading.

5th Grade

Mr. Faeth's reading group has been working hard all year.

6th Grade

6th grade worked REALLY hard on testing. We rocked our ELA (English-Language Arts) test on Tuesday and Math on Thursday. The kids did great and we are so proud of them! Our break was much deserved! -Ms. Carnahan

WPS Parent Spotlight

Owenah Sharp is an amazing parent to work with. She is always punctual about returning calls and texts and really wants what is best for her kids at WPS. She is willing to talk through situations and come up with solutions and work on things at home as well. – Ms. McAfee

Dacia Gorrin is always ready to help in Tayden's education in any way possible. She is quick to respond to any questions his teachers have and always lets them know if anything may have changed in his routine that could impact his school day. She is wonderful to work with and is a great advocate for her son! – Mrs. Ruwe

Amazing work!!

Matt Cleveland

Matt has been doing an amazing job working in kindergarten! He has built a great relationship with the student he is working with and is loved by all students in his classroom. Matt has been a great addition to the WPS staff!!
