

Mora High School Frequently Asked Questions

Updated: April 2023

Is the new high school on schedule to open and start in the fall?

Yes. The construction is scheduled to be completed July 2023 with occupancy tentatively scheduled for August 2023.

Will the school be demolished first and the property sold? Will the school pay for the demolition?

Yes, the old high school will be demolished and the property will then be posted for sale. Funds from the bond have already been allocated for demolition. Demolition is set to take place in the fall of 2023.

Will the old Mora High School be sold?

No. During the special election on May 12, 2020, voters passed the school bond referendum that allowed for the construction of the new high school as well as the demolition of the old high school. The land will be sold after demolition.

Can I have a piece of memorabilia from the old high school?

The school district will hold an online auction in the Fall of 2023 for anyone wishing to purchase memorabilia or other items from the old high school.

What items will be up for auction?

Most items that will not be utilized and moved to the new school will be available at auction. More information regarding items that will be available will be released closer to the auction set for the Summer-Fall of 2023.

What is being done with the large class photos from prior years?

The large class photos, previous years yearbooks, and other select items will be digitally scanned and available on a product called touch screen that will be accessible in the new high school. We are working with Kanabec County History Center to preserve the originals.

What is being done with old trophies and awards?

There will be 3 display cases in the New High School. One will display general artifacts from the history of the school. One will display athletic trophies and awards. And the last will display Arts awards and projects.

Will there be a final walk through of the old high school for community members?
