Policy Manual

SEARCH AND SEIZURE

All district property, including but not limited to: real estate, buildings, offices, desks, storage areas, lockers, computer systems and equipment, voice-mail, email and vehicles, is owned by the district. Such property is intended for educational purposes and district business, at all times.

Individuals using district-owned property (system users) shall have no expectation of privacy when using school property. The district reserves the right to monitor, inspect, copy, review and store (at any time and without notice) all usage of district property including computer and computer systems, all internet and electronic communications access and transmission/receipt of materials and information. All material and information accessed and/or received through district computers and computer systems shall remain the property of the school district.

Employees or students violating acceptable use of district property, or policy, may be subject to disciplinary action by the Superintendent or designee, depending on the nature of the violation.
