TRUANCY

As required by state law, the Superintendent will be responsible for an accurate record of the attendance or nonattendance of all students who should be enrolled in school.

Each school operates a truancy plan that coincides with the school stated attendance policy in the student handbook. This truancy plan generally involves the principal, counselor and other associated school personnel who may track attendance. The principal will initiate procedures for reporting of truancy should the school attendance policy warrant this need. Appropriate action and notification to appropriate officials will be at the discretion of the principal and initiated by the principal.
