

September 5, 2022

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Decatur City School family is saddened to learn of the death of a beloved staff member.

Daivon Fouche' passed away Saturday night. He was an educator for over twenty years with Decatur City Schools and was loved by the students, staff, and families. Mr. Fouche' most recently served as the virtual school counselor. He worked as a Guidance Counselor at Decatur High School from 1999-2021 and was a fourth and fifth-grade teacher early in his career.

"Daivon Fouche' is unforgettable. Those who had the privilege to work alongside him will remember his kindness, selflessness, and a great big smile," said Dr. Mark Christopher, who served with Mr. Fouche' at Decatur High School as a teacher, fellow counselor, and administrator. "He dedicated himself to assisting our students and did whatever he could to help those around him. His influence reaches greater than we could ever measure."

"The Decatur City School family is saddened by the news of Mr. Fouche's passing. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family and those that served alongside him for years for the betterment of our school community," said Dr. Michael Douglas, Superintendent, Decatur City Schools.

"Mr. Fouche' was a man who everyone knew and admired. He had a smile that would light up a room and a heart for others that was unmatched. Throughout his years as Senior Counselor at Decatur High School, he was committed and devoted to his students. Mr. Fouche' leaves behind a legacy that will long be remembered by the lives of those he touched," said Leslie Russell, Principal, Decatur High School.

Please join us in sending thoughts, prayers, and condolences to the Fouche' family and friends during this difficult time.

###