

HAROLD J HOWRIGAN SR SCHOLARSHIP 2023 APPLICATION

The Harold J Howrigan Sr Scholarship was formed in memory of Harold J Howrigan Sr who was a lifelong dairy farmer and maple producer and was a leader in the dairy industry at the local, state, regional and national levels. 2023 is the fourteenth year in which we will award scholarship(s) based on merit through a competitive process to students pursuing higher education who reside in northern Vermont. Preference is given to those students pursuing degrees in agriculture, forestry and/or closely related fields.

We will solicit applications for our review and awarding of funds to further our goal of grooming future leaders in agriculture. Applications will be reviewed and recipients selected by the Board of Directors based on merit as shown by: 1) thorough completion of the application; 2) compliance with our stated higher education goals and/or leadership development skills; 3) academics; 4) demonstration of leadership; and 5) with preference as stated above. We anticipate awarding at least two (2) scholarships of up to $1,500 each dependent upon the quality of applicants and available funding.

To apply:

- 1) Complete this application.
- 2) Attach your resume or autobiography (in one page or less) of your school activities, extracurricular and/or community service activities, work history and leadership positions.
- 3) Attach your most recent GPA and transcript.
- 4) Attach a maximum of three (3) letters of recommendation.
- 5) Please respond to this question using approximately 300 to 500 words: How do you plan or aspire to contribute to your industry and why?
- 6) Return completed application package on or before April 15, 2023 to:
