Dear Readers,

Fall is a great time of year in Le Sueur and Henderson to take advantage of your community education department. We have learning opportunities for all ages. We have enrichment classes for youth and adults that allow you to explore interests or try a new hobby. I encourage you to check out our offerings and sign up for a class you would enjoy. Make sure to check out our popular classes such as, Holiday Cookies Make and Take, Paint Like Bob Ross, and for Kids, our "Rubiks Cube Conquerors!". Our Fall Harvest Extravaganza event on October 27th is a must if you have kids 12 and under. Lastly, if you have a hobby or talent that you would like to share with others and make some cash while sharing your interest, please give us a call at (507) 665-4620.

Have a great autumn!

Nathan Warden, LSH Community Ed. director.
