New Rochelle Summer 2022 Reading Assignment for Incoming 6th Graders

Due to your 6th Grade ELA Teacher during the first week of school in September.

Dear Incoming 6th Graders,

We are so excited to be working with you next year!

In order to continue to grow as a reader and a writer over the summer, you will choose 1 of the many books you read this summer and complete a reading response entry to show your deep thinking!

You may type your response or use the sheets provided. Attached you have a suggested reading list, questions for you to respond to, and the rubric we will use to assess your hard work.

Here are some ways you can access a new book to read:

1. Many libraries are opening, so if you have a library card, you may be able to go to the public library to borrow a book. Here is the link to the New Rochelle Public Library website:
<https://nrpl.org/>.
2. New Rochelle students can access ebooks via the Sora app in Google. No library card is needed. When you sign into Google, find the waffle and scroll down to the Sora app. There are thousands of books for you to choose from.
3. For more reading fun check out ComicsPlus, which is an online Graphic Novels website. For access, you log in with your school google email account. Then, you enter your middle school (Isaac E. Young or Albert Leonard). Instantly, you'll have access to thousands of Graphic Novels you can enjoy reading.
