

Vicki (Colberg) DeVille, a 1972 Estelline High School graduate, was chosen to lead this year's Homecoming parade. Vicki grew up in Estelline, attending Estelline School for 13 years. Her parents are Earl and Shirley Colberg. Her siblings were all EHS graduates: Linda (1971), Pat (1974), Sheila (1977), Lorri (1978), Kristi (1982), Marci (1986), and David (1987).

After graduation, Vicki attended Watertown Business University. She married Randy DeVille (1972) in 1975. They owned and operated the Estelline Bakery for 12 years. Their two daughters both attended Estelline School for 13 years and Randy and Vicki enjoyed volleyball and basketball games during the girls' high school years.

Vicki started working at Estelline Elementary as a teacher's aide and elementary secretary in 1996 and retired after 25 years in 2021. She was also library aide the last nine years of her employment. She says, "working at the school was a fun, rewarding job".

Randy and Vicki's daughters are Darcy Geho, who graduated in 1998 and lives in Slayton, MN and Stacy Hoitsma, who graduated in 2004 and lives in Sioux Falls, SD. Vicki has two grandchildren: Camden (11) and Ava (7).
