Welcome Message: Dr. Jones

- There's no place like HOMS
- Everyone will make mistakes
- There is always room for new friends
- A positive school experience begins with good citizens
- More independence means more responsibility
- We are here to support you and make sure that you are successful

Welcome to Sixth Grade!

Character Expectations: (PBIS)

Self-Control

We think before we make choices

Honesty

We are truthful in our interactions with others and with ourselves

Accountability

We can be relied on to do what is expected of us, and to do what is right.

Respect

We treat others with dignity, as we would like to be treated ourselves.

Kindness

We are generous with compliments, grace, and forgiveness.

Learning at HOMS: Mrs. Elliott

- Academic Integrity
- Preparing for each school day
  - Supplies
  - Homework
  - Attitude
- Engaging in work and dialogue
- Taking educational risks & learning from mistakes
- Grading & checking FOCUS
- Keeping up with work assignments
- Learning how to study
- HOMS Lower Secondary Cambridge (ELA, Science, Global Per., Art)

Sample Bell Schedule & Lunch

In this HOMS schedule, sixth graders had lunch during 4th period. The other schedule may be what it looks like next year, where lunch is not its own class period.

Indoor/outdoor seating.

First two weeks, bringing lunch might be helpful as lines may be longer.
