Las Cruces Public Schools

The Las Cruces Public Schools exemplifies a caring and equitable learning environment that provides all students their fundamental right to a high quality education. The district has 40 schools: 24 elementary schools (pre-kindergarten-5th); one combined elementary and middle school (K-8th); eight middle schools (6th-8th); and seven high schools (9th-12th). Two of the seven high schools are early college high schools and are located on the campus of New Mexico State University. LCPS also has a Virtual Learning Academy, serving elementary through high school students.

Community

Las Cruces Public Schools is located 45 miles north of the US-Mexico border in Las Cruces, New Mexico. With approximately 24200 students and 3401 employees, LCPS is the second largest school district in New Mexico. LCPS serves a diverse population of approximately 91,000 people throughout the City of Las Cruces, the Town of Mesilla, the Village of Doña Ana, and White Sands Missile Range, and the middle third of Doña Ana County. The city's largest employers include: New Mexico State university, White Sands Missile Range, Las Cruces Public Schools, and the city of Las Cruces.

Key Figures

We believe that personal and social circumstances such as gender, ethnic origin, sexual orientation or family background are not obstacles to achieving educational potential and fully participating in all educational opportunities provided by the District. Our schools are diverse, equitable, and provide opportunities for the development of critical thinking and democratic ideals. In addition, we believe in creating a safe, secure learning environment where respect, honesty, and appreciation of individual differences are fostered.
