District Highlights
---------------------

On Tuesday March 14th, Bellevue Jr/Sr High will be hosting the Southern Central Athletic Association Leadership Conference. This conference features a group of speakers that will talk to selected student athlete leaders from each of the schools in our league. The main focus of the conference is to help guide and develop our student athletes into becoming successful leaders on and off the playing surfaces. The students will hear from a keynote speaker before being divided into groups with students from other schools and attending different breakout sessions. The day will end with lunch provided by our wonderful kitchen staff.

Go Broncos!
