

Taylor School District Art Contest

Thursday, April 27, 2023, 5-8 p.m.

Taylor High School

How Do You Celebrate Taylor?

From Taylor Schools to the Taylor Library to the Sportsplex and beyond, Taylor is an amazing city! Showcase all the wonderful things in Taylor in an artistic form.

Who can enter?

Taylor School District invites students enrolled in our school district to use their artistic skills to create original artwork.

Accepts

You may work with any materials as long as the art work is done as a drawing, painting, 3D piece or digital piece. The artwork may not exceed 11X18.

How does the contest work?

There will be five age categories, PreK-K, 1-2, 3-5, 6-8, and 9-12+. Each piece of artwork will be displayed during our Celebrate Taylor event on April 27, 2023, at Taylor High School. At the event there will be ways for those attending to vote for their top pieces by age category. The top two pieces of artwork for each age category will be displayed at the Taylor School District Board of Education Office.

Deadline

Send Artwork to Tracy Carroll at the Board of Education by April 21, 2023. Digital artwork may be sent to Tracy Carroll at tracy.carroll@taylorschools.net by the deadline. Please make sure all artwork is labeled with first name, last name, school and grade.

Visit taylorschools.net/celebratetaylor for event information.