

CPMS Announcements

Thursday, September 20th

NJHS will be having a car wash this Saturday from 9:00-2:00 this Saturday at Donatos!

This Friday is our first hot chocolate and cookie sale day of the school year. Students may purchase a cup of hot chocolate for $1 and/or two chocolate chip cookies for $1 out of their English Language Arts classes. Proceeds fund our author from Kwame Alexander this November.

September is Library Card Month. Johnson County Public Library has provided a prize basket to celebrate. Be sure to show your JCPL library card or sign up to get a card to enter the contest. See Mrs. Kern with any questions you may have.

The Be a Star Contest is underway in the LMC. Read four books by visiting author Kwame Alexander and complete the form shared with all students in the LMC Google Classroom to enter to win one of Mr. Alexander's books in November.

Students may register for the next Maker Monday in the LMC. Our next meeting will be Monday, September 24 from 3-3:45.

The STEM event at Endress+Hauser is this tonight from 5:30-8:30. Enjoy free food and giveaways, see robotics demonstrations, meet with companies and colleges to see how STEM is incorporated in their fields and more! We hope to see you there!

Last night the Warrior Soccer teams hosted Greenwood. The girls fell 6-1 to the Woodmen, but did get an outstanding defensive performance by Gehreen Kalkat. The boys continued to make things exciting by pulling out a 2-1 victory with the go ahead goal coming in the last minute of the game Vincent Albright and Harjap Singh scored goals off of assists from Oziel Mendoza and David Lompo. Great job, Warriors

Please come out and support your 7th grade football team as well as the Volleyball teams tonight. There will be another appearance from the Scoops and Treasures ice cream truck at the football game tonight!

Reminder to walkers and car riders...you must remain in your 8th period class until dismissed by intercom. You are not allowed to leave at the bell with bus riders. In addition all walkers and car riders must leave through door #1 near the main office. The only students who can leave through door 12 are those students who ride a bicycle and park it in the bike rack.

Your safety is our priority and we expect for you to follow these procedures.

Best Buddies will meet on Monday, Sept. 24 from 3-4:15 in the main LGI. This is our match party. Please bring your chrome books as we will use them at the beginning of the meeting. If you didn't get an invitation and are signed up, please let Mrs. Widener know. Hope to see you there!
