Elevating Educators at Slaughter Elementary School

Congratulations to SES on your national recognition as an NIET Founder's Award finalist!

#HomegrownPride

At the April meeting of the East Feliciana Parish School Board, East Feliciana Public Schools presented the Slaughter Elementary School instructional leadership team with a banner to celebrate the school's achievement as just one of five schools nationwide to be recognized as an NIET Founder's Award finalist.

Celebrating Our Comeback Campuses

The Louisiana Comeback Campus initiative from the Louisiana Department of Education recognizes schools who have improved their performance in math and/or English language arts from 2019 to 2022. Schools recognized are those who have decreased their rate of students scoring unsatisfactory on state assessments and increased their rate of students scoring mastery and above. We are proud to recognize Clinton Elementary School for earning this designation for English language arts and Jackson Elementary School and Slaughter Community Charter School for earning this designation for math.

Happy Assistant Principal's Week!

April 3-7 is National Assistant Principals Week! We want to take a moment to recognize these important leaders in our schools!

JES Steps Out in Style

Jackson Elementary School hosted a Sneaker Ball on Friday, March 31 for students and their families. Thank you to all the families who participated in this fun and fashionable community event!

All About the Birds at East Feliciana Enrichment Academy

For many decades, scientists have investigated the beaks of finches to better understand gene variation and how species form and diversify. Students at the East Feliciana Enrichment Academy joined this cadre of scientists by conducting their own simulation of how different types of finch beaks function.

WCCP you like to go on a picnic?

Students enrolled in woodshop and workplace safety courses at East Feliciana High School have been building picnic tables. Students in both career and technical education courses and university pathway courses at East Feliciana High School have a variety of applied learning opportunities to develop their skills.

Spoonfuls of Fun at SES!

Students at Slaughter Elementary School had plenty of spring fun in their physical education classes before Spring Break! They participated in an egg and spoon relay race, a bunny ear ring toss, and a bunny bean bag toss. Through these activities, students developed team building and coordination skills.
